MRS. PAM BEAVER

As our Senior year drew to a close, we found that it was easy to express our feelings about a lady who has done so much for the whole school and the Senior Class especially. She has been a very devoted teacher and has done all she could to make school a more pleasant place. She has had great dreams for South. Perhaps many of them have failed to materialize, but she has never given up hope.

"Hold fast to dreams for if dreams die life is a broken-winged bird that cannot fly."

The Senior Class Dedicates

This year the Senior Class has done something different. We have dedicated the '74 Southerner to two special people. During the candy sales our "Mr. Special" was known as "The Candy Man." Never has he been seen without a smile on his face. As we come back to South Rowan, there will always be reminders of Mr. Upright's efforts to improve the beauty of our school's campus.

"A friend is a gift you give yourself."

Miss Merry Christmas
Cynthia Hodge

During the talent portion of the program, Cynthia captivated the audience with the recitation, "Father's Table Grace," and a song, "You'll Never Walk Alone."

Cynthia shed tears of joy upon hearing the good news

Bill Baldwin crowned Cynthia "Miss Merry Christmas."

Cynthia shared tears of joy with her mother

Cathy Barnhardt was first runner up

The Miss Merry Christmas Pageant was sponsored by the Student Council. Judging was done on the basis of poise, talent, personality, and participation in school activities. Judges were Mr. Mike Smith, Mrs. Jesse Watson, and Mrs. Thomas.

Connie Ebird sang "What the World Needs Now."

Janet Burris entertained with a tap routine.

Jennie Talbert did a beautiful ballet to "Precious and Few."

Pageant Drew Many Contestants

"Summer of Forty-two" provided the background for Melanie McKinnery's ballet.

Kathy Wilson held the audience spellbound with "Killing Me Softly."

Martha Swing presented a baton and jazz routine for the talent portion of the pageant.

Donna Morris entertained with the solo "Top of the World."

"The Good, the Bad, the Ugly" was the theme for Judy Goodman's baton routine.

Debra McWaters presented a piano solo, "Over the Rainbow."

People

The doors of opportunities are opened each day in the fields of academics, vocations, business, and the arts to the students of South Rowan. Mr. Brendell heads this drive with the cooperation of an outstanding faculty. There have been many changes brought about at our school in the past three years. Mr. Brendell is continually looking ahead to find ways to meet the needs and problems of South Rowan. He is a man with ideas and the ability to communicate them. He has the power to inspire and a dedication to serve.

Administration

Mr. Jerry Pless became our assistant principal for the first time this year. He has been a friend to all and has shown concern for our school and its students. He has listened to many excuses and managed to find time for innumerable other duties.

"A Hair-Raising" Experience!

We, the editors and advisor of the 1974 Southerner, feel that we all are, indeed, "the leaves of one tree." This was proved to us many times through the cooperation and encouragement of fellow students, faculty, and administration. Memories are beautiful and our memories of our association with each of you will linger long. It is our hope that each of you will enjoy and cherish the 1974 Southerner as a great friend. Thank you for being the leaf of a great tree.

*Siva Shoemaker
Beth McKinney
Jennifer Helms
Judy Goodman
Mrs. J. Jaggart*

"Memories can be such beautiful things,
Frail, ethereal as butterflies' wings;
Bits of bright jewels, part of you and me,
Built of our thoughts so lovely and free.

.....
Life can hold nothing more beautiful, fair,
Than friendship's sweet memories lingering there."
— Eva Orloff

Ye Were All the Leaves of One Tree

"God gives us many wondrous things,
I see them day by day . . .
The grass, the trees, the sky above
And flowers by the way.
The sun so warm, the moon of gold
And stars up in the sky
All speak together of the love
Of Him who dwells on high.

But greater far than these are friends
He gives us on life's way,
Whose fellowship gives help and strength
And courage day by day.
I'm thankful for each one of mine
And pray that I can be
The loving, trusting, helpful friend
That each has been to me."

— Hazel Rugg

Linda,

Linda,

It has been fun knowing you the past years.
You're a real sweet girl with a good personality. Good luck!

Adriana
Wanda

Adriana,

I have been thinking about you and how you are a good friend. I have been thinking about you and how you are a good friend. I have been thinking about you and how you are a good friend.

Linda,
 You are one of a kind & Crazy!
 But you are something else, entirely different! A friend!
 A friend indeed! Hope to see again soon!
 amigos para jamas,
 Sheila
 mid 70s

Linda,
 It has been nice knowing you the past couple of years, you are a great person and have a wonderful personality. I wish you all the luck in the world.

Love,
 Lynn Connor Junior '74

Lina,
 It's been nice knowing you these past couple years.
 You're a nice crazy girl. See ya next year & be good.
 Friend,
 Gary
 Senior '75

It really has been great knowing you this year. I'm surprised that we made it 30th the food in Stone Ec.
 Well, I'll see you next year. Be good.
 Love,
 King Delene
 Senior
 7/75

It has been nice knowing you. Hope to see you the year of 90's too in you!
 Good luck in you!
 You'll be able to wrap your friend always!

Linda,
 Crazy is the only word for a friend like you.
 First period is enough with you - and God only knows that 5th period is even worse. May you continue to laugh during your life ahead.
 May God Bless You!!

Love,
 Sandy '75
 Overcast

Linda,
 I like you very much and also I will miss you around here at South River. Do keep up the good work for which you have become known. And go on forward.
 May God Bless you.
 Love
 Michael, Jr.

Drucke,

It's been a great 5 year. You've helped to make it that way. Stay the way you are. Don't ever change. You're a real sweet girl.

a friend always.

Linda, had we have had a lot of fun in typing this year. I don't know what gift period you have been a great friend to the end.

Linda, it has been a pleasure getting to know you this year. I have enjoyed being in same-ec with you. Take care of yourself and good luck always.

Your pal,
 Belinda
